WELCOME!

FROM THE WIHS PRESIDENT

We're delighted to join with presenting sponsor TTR Sotheby's International Realty to welcome you to the 2021 WIHS Regional Horse Show & USHJA Zone 3 Championship. And, we're thrilled to say, fans are welcome!

This will be our second year on the lovely grounds of Morven Park International Equestrian Center, our host during the uncertainty of COVID-19. Then, and now, Morven Park is ready to provide our exhibitors as well as officials, sponsors, and staff a positive, safe and enjoyable showing experience.

This year competitors can look forward to our traditional show offerings as well as new classes including the return of the prestigious Maryland Horse Shows Association Gittings Horsemanship Finals, the USHJA Zone 3 Championship with the addition of Zone Hunter Breeding, and the selection of the 10th Annual Laura Pickett Excellence in Horsemanship Award.

In addition, we will host the year-end MHSIA Invitational Thoroughbred Hunter Classic, and offer a new trophy, the Washington International Horse Show Grand Adult Amateur Hunter Glyndon Memorial Trophy donated by Patti and Bruce Schindler.

We are proud to introduce Teach For America as the first charity partner for the WIHS Regional Show and to help support their goal to work towards the day when every child will receive an excellent and equitable education. We also extend our gratitude and warmly welcome back Kelly Wilkinson Coffin as the WIHS Regional Official Artist.

None of this would be possible without the dedicated board members, partners, staff, and friends of WIHS contributing their special talents and passion to make this show a success. I wish our competitors the best of luck this year and look forward to many more years to come!

Victoria Lowell, WIHS President

All horses, even champions of the racetrack and the show ring, are only one unlucky sale away from abuse, neglect and slaughter.

Humanity has been able to spread far and wide on the backs of horses -- but the carnage of horses at the hands of humans is also well documented.

Viewed as commodities, too many horses are regarded as disposable for profit when their owners cannot, or no longer wish to, care for them.

The work of the EQUUS Foundation begins each time the career of a horse comes to an end.

The EQUUS Foundation is committed to ensuring that donor dollars are invested in effective programs that are finding homes for at-risk horses and horses in transition, providing a safe haven for aged horses, and increasing opportunities for people to engage and partner with horses in new and innovative ways.

Informed giving has never been more important!

7,900 Horses currently assisting Americans with disabilities.

The solutions to ensure that horses transition to next chapters and thrive without risk of abuse and neglect, or the threat of slaughter are within our reach!

For horses to remain an important part of American life and have a viable future, we need to embrace a fundamental shift in our attitude towards horses -- from the horse as a commodity to the horse as a partner -- as an athlete, companion, teacher and healer.
